THOS. SUTHERLAND,

Ni the year 1857 the Directors made a considerable reduction in the Company's rates of Passage Money, which continued in force till 1861. In that year, owing to the extraordinary rise in price of all descriptions of Naval Stores, the Directors were reluctabilly compelled to return to the rates of Passage Money previously in force. They are now happy to state that a decrease in the price of Coal and other expenses of Steam Navigation cuables them to reduce the Company's Passage rates to the undernoted scale, which will take effect from and after the lat June next, viz :--From Hongkong to: Bnaz.
